Lent Readings from Tuesday 3 March

Tony and Jenny Tomalin-Reeves have kindly agreed to host the Lent Reading group again. If you would like to join the group, please sign up in the porch, where also there are the booklets available at £1 each (to go in the papers' slot).

New Sunday Evening Service

Thank you for the completed questionnaires re the timings of this service. There was a slight majority for 5:30pm, so we will have our first one on the first Sunday of Lent, 1 March. This would be an excellent way to observe Lent, which you may well decide to continue throughout the year!

Summer Fayre: 4 July 2020

There is a tick list in the porch which we hope people will sign to give us an idea of what we can do. Please can you have a think about what you could contribute, and we will schedule a meeting in due course. The idea is that it would be from 12-4pm with a barbecue, stalls etc.

Thought for the Week

Many people have no stable points of reference on which to build their lives, and so they end up deeply insecure. There is a growing mentality of relativism, which holds that everything is equally valid, that truth and absolute points of reference do not exist. But this way of thinking does not lead to true freedom, but rather to instability, confusion and blind conformity to the fads of the moment.

Benedict XVI

Music this Week

Entrance 609 Tell out my Soul

Offertory: 189 Make me a channel of your peace

Acclamation: When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again

Communion: 60 Dear Lord and Father of mankind

Recessional: 500 How lovely on the mountains

Forming a Choir

There has been a highly encouraging response to my request for volunteers to form a Church Choir, and many thanks to all those who have come forward already. There are certainly some with lovely voices who have not yet come forward: don't be shy - and apart from anything else, it should prove to be a great social occasion!

We propose having an initial informal meeting over coffee after Mass today but don't worry if you are already booked: just make sure I have your name. Thank you, Fr James.

Vocations Weekend for young women

“Discernment and Vocation” in Liverpool, 28 Feb - 1 March 2020, by the sisters Faithful Companions of Jesus (FCJ).

There is nothing quite like religious life – it's an extraordinary adventure into a deep relationship with God. If you are wondering if God is calling you to religious life and would like to find out more why not come along? You are welcome to stay for the weekend or just come along on Saturday for the day. There will be opportunity for prayer, reflection and input, chance to ask questions and to meet others who are also wondering where God is calling them.

A message from CAFOD

Tackling global poverty; it sounds like a big task. But once it is broken down into small actions and shared between a team of passionate people amazing things can happen. Join our CAFOD volunteer team and alongside others in your parish, help us through prayer, raising awareness and funds to help our poorest and most vulnerable sisters and brothers.

Contact: Carol Cross, Community Participation Coordinator on 01642 822301/ 07779804253 or email ccross@cafod.org.uk
