SATURDAY EVENING MASS

So far, only one kind parishioner has offered to help with the post-mass cleaning after Saturday evening masses, which means that we are not able as yet to start them up again. May I therefore make another plea for help with this? As I mentioned last week, the greater the number of helpers, the less often you will find your name on the rota – it's only a ten minute job!

Thank you!

Fr James.

Holy Communion

We have adapted pretty well to the situation of booking in at Mass, but some confusion is happening at Holy Communion. What we are trying to avoid is two-way traffic. The Steward in charge may let several rows go at once, with the idea that once you get to the front you fan out in a row across the altar. Please do not queue down the aisle as in pre-COVID times, but move to the altar step. Once you have taken communion you may return to your seat, as long as no-one else is still moving into place. If they are, please stand still by the altar until your passage is clear.

The back rows around the Stewards' table do not need to come forward. Fr James will come to the back to give communion not only to those with mobility issues, but also anyone in the Lady Chapel and the Stewards themselves.

Thought for the Week

When you are before the altar where Christ reposes, you ought no longer to think that you are amongst men; but believe that there are troops of angels and archangels standing by you, and trembling with respect before the sovereign Master of Heaven and earth. Therefore, when you are in church, be there in silence, fear, and veneration.

Saint John Chrysostom
(Abp of Constantinople, died 407AD)

August Mass Booking

There are individual sheets for those who are regularly coming to Mass, out on the benches. Please fill in the August dates you would like to come to Mass and let Kathryn have them back. You can add dates later also, but if you would like to come between Sunday 16 and Sunday 23 August (inclusive), we would need to know by Friday 14 August, so that all the seating plans can be set up before Kathryn's holiday.

Opening of the Church for Mass: Reminders re the Guidelines we are following

All priests have been asked, firstly, to remind everyone that the Sunday obligation to attend Mass remains suspended, and will do so for a while to come yet.

Thank you to all those who are helping in whatever way to allow us to do this.

1. IF YOU SHOW ANY SYMPTOMS OF THE VIRUS, PLEASE CONTINUE TO SELF-ISOLATE, AND DO NOT COME INTO CHURCH.
2. The church will be open for 9:30 Mass on Wednesdays and Fridays and for Mass at 10am on Sundays. The church is closed during the remaining time for thorough cleaning.
3. Please wear a face-covering and sanitise your hands on entering and on leaving the premises.
4. Stewards will guide you through the process, and ensure government guidelines are maintained.
5. Please use the one-way system: enter through the main church door and exit via the sacristy and hall.
6. Please take a bulletin away with you, but once you have touched one, do not return it to the pile.
7. There is an assigned seating plan based on the bookings received prior to Mass
8. We are told that the lighting of candles presents a fire risk due to the inflammable nature of hand-gel; if you do wish to light candles, please take the greatest care. There is a fire extinguisher in the porch.
9. The Lady chapel may be used, but only one person (or one household) at a time.
10. The balcony remains closed; the staircase is too narrow to make social distancing possible.
11. We minimise risk by minimising surfaces to be touched. Please avoid touching the statues and Wren furniture in particular, we do not wish to damage them by the enhanced cleaning necessary.
12. Please avoid using the loos if at all possible; if you do use them, please advise a steward or Kathryn/Fr James so they can be wiped down afterwards.
13. We cannot use holy water and during mass there will be no intercessions or sign of peace.
14. At Holy Communion you will be guided as to when to leave your seat. The whole of your row will go at once, and no other row will go until you have returned to your seats.
15. Fr James cannot greet people at the end of mass - the rules state that people should leave promptly.
